MY HOME OF LONG AGO.

Words by MAURICE SHAPIRO.

Music by HARRY VON TILZER.

INTRO.

Andante Mod^{to}

hill, the same old trees and flow - ers all seem ed to grow there gay, their song has lost its sweet - ness, since, Nell has passed a still, I saw the lit - tle home - stead where as a child used to play, the way, And in my dreams I saw her stand as she stood in days gone by, the same old school - house down the road, the church a - cross the way and same old smile was on her face, the love light in her eye, she in the vil - lage church - yard be neath a mould of clay, there told me that she loved me, as on that sum - mer day she lay the one that I loved best, near my old home far a way.

 prom-ised that she'd be my wife, in the old home far a way.

CHORUS.

My home, My dear old home, My home, in days of yore, Sad re col-lec-tions ho-ver round me for-ev-er more And in my dreams I see a-gain, the place that I loved so where as a child I used to roam, My home of long a-go.
